THE Sheriffs of the City of London having waited on his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales from the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen upon the Birth of the Princeſs, to know his Royal Highneſs's Pleaſure when he would be attended with their Compliments upon that Occaſion; his Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to acquaint them, that when the Princeſs of Wales was recovered, he would let them know when it would be proper. Accordingly this Day being appointed by their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, for the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen to attend them, they waited upon their Royal Highneſſes at Carlton Houſe near Pall-Mall, and being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Chamberlain to her Royal Highneſs, Mr. Baron Thomſon, the Recorder of the City, made their Compliments to His Royal Highneſs in the following Speech.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, having early paid their Duty to their Royal Sovereign, and to her Majeſty, upon the Birth of the Princeſs; if it had been convenient, they would then have humbly begg'd Leave to congratulate your Royal Highneſs upon ſo happy an Occaſion.

They now, by your Royal Highneſs's Permiſſion, preſume to expreſs their Joyful Sentiments on ſo fortunate an Event: Fortunate! not only as it has given your Royal Highneſs this your firſt-born Princeſs, but as it yields moſt probable Hopes of many more Deſcendents from ſuch illuſtrious Parents, and a moſt agreeable Proſpect to all his Majeſty's Subjects, of the Continuance of thoſe many Bleſſings, which they have ſo long enjoyed under the Influence and Protection of your Royal Houſe.

Your Royal Highneſs having done the higheſt Honour to the City of London, by moſt graciouſly condeſcending to become a Member of that Body, and having on many Occaſions given evident Marks of your Royal Highneſs's good Will towards them,

The Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen beg Leave to take this Opportunity of renewing their moſt grateful Acknowledgments; aſſuring your Royal Highneſs of their hearty Wiſhes for your Royal Highneſs's Welfare and Proſperity, and that they are devoted to your Royal Highneſs's true Intereſt and Service, being ſincerely attached to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Highneſs and your Royal Family.

Then to Her Royal Highneſs, as follows.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen humbly beg Leave to addreſs themſelves to your Royal Highneſs with their moſt hearty Congratulations upon your ſafe Delivery, on the Birth of the Princeſs, and the Reeſtabliſhment of your Health. Your Royal Iſſue, Madam, will ever be dear to theſe his Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects. They now entertain the pleaſing Hopes, that many amiable Qualities, Graces and Virtues, derived to the Princeſs from your Royal Highneſs, will make her in due Time an Ornament to a Throne, and a Bleſſing to the World. They preſume to add their moſt ardent Wiſhes, that your Royal Highneſs may prove the glorious Inſtrument of Providence, by yielding a numerous Progeny, to be the Supporters of the Proteſtant Religion and Britiſh Liberty:

And that your Royal Highneſs may always find in Life, true Joy, laſting Comfort, and ſolid Happineſs.

To which his Royal Highneſs made this moſt gracious Anſwer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I return you my Thanks and thoſe of the Princeſs, for the Share you take in this Increaſe of the King's Family; and aſſure you, that whatever Children God may bleſs me with, I will infuſe into them Sentiments agreeable to the Laws and Liberties of that Country they have the Happineſs to be born in.

The City has always ſhewn ſuch Zeal for the King and His Family, that I think it highly incumbent upon me to aſſure you, that I will be in all Times an hearty Well Wiſher for your Trade and Proſperity.

They all had the Honour to kiſs their Royal Highneſſes Hands.

Vienna,

Vienna, Sept. 14, N. S. This Court has received a Courier from Niemeroff, with Letters of the 26th paſt, N. It is aſſured that the Demands of the Imperial Plenipotentiaries conſiſt only upon uti Poſſidetis at the Time of the Signing; to which it is ſaid that the Turks ſhew'd no great Reluctancy: But as to the Demands of the Muſcovites, they found themſelves obliged to ſend a Courier to Conſtantinople for new Orders; for which Purpoſe they deſired Paſſports, as well from the Imperial, as from the Ruſſian Plenipotentiaries, which were granted them.
